DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claims 37-42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 37-42 are drawn to "catalyst system" yet the parent claim is drawn to "process for the polymerization." Therefore, it cannot be determined whether claims 37-42 are drawn to process or to catalyst.

Double Patenting

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claim 34 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-12 of U.S. Patent No. 5,227,440.

Art Unit: 1713

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because substantially the same process is being claimed. The only differences between the two claims sets are: (a) the patented claims require a catalyst support, while the instant process is open-ended regarding a support, and (b) the patented claims may have the metallocene bridged or unbridged ($y=0,1$), while the instant claims are limited to unbridged species ($y=0$). However, since the instant claim clearly includes processes which have already been patented, it is not separately patentable.

4. Claims 37-42 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-18 of U.S. Patent No. 5,057,475. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because substantially the same catalyst is being claimed. The only differences between the two claims sets are: (a) the patented claims require a catalyst support, while the instant process is open-ended regarding a support, and (b) the patented claims may have the metallocene bridged or unbridged ($y=0,1$), while the instant claims are limited to unbridged species ($y=0$). However, since the instant claims clearly include catalysts which have already been patented, they are not separately patentable.

5. Claims 34 and 37-42 are directed to an invention not patentably distinct from claims 1-12 of commonly assigned 5,227,440 (for claim 34) and claims 1-18 of commonly assigned 5,057,475 (for claims 37-42). The U.S. Patent and Trademark Office normally will not institute an interference between applications or a patent and an application of common ownership (see MPEP § 2302). Commonly assigned 5,227,440 and 5,057,475, discussed above, would form the basis for rejection of the noted claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) if the commonly assigned case qualifies as prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) and the conflicting inventions were not commonly owned at the time the invention in this application was made. In order for the examiner to resolve this issue, the assignee can, under 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and 37 CFR 1.78(c), either show that the conflicting inventions were commonly owned at the time the invention in this application was made, or name the prior inventor of the conflicting subject matter.

A showing that the inventions were commonly owned at the time the invention in this application was made will preclude a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) based upon the commonly assigned case as a reference under 35 U.S.C. 102(f) or (g), or 35 U.S.C. 102(e) for applications filed on or after November 29, 1999.

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Roberto Rábago whose telephone number is (571) 272-1109. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Friday from 8:30 am - 4:00 pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, David Wu can be reached on (571) 272-1114. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
